Cricket is a sport that barely requires an introduction. Being an Indian, it is the one sport that we have constantly heard about while growing up. We all have fond memories of making teams among our friends and playing cricket on the streets.

The whole family would gather around the T.V. when the Indian team would be playing. Everything from our favorite batsman hitting a six, to the anticipation of the last overs, made the whole cricket watching experience enjoyable.

India has produced many legends in the game of cricket, from which below are my favourites,

- MS Dhoni
- Virat Kohli
- Rohit Sharma

Dance

While dancing all you need are comfortable shoes and clothes. The reason behind my dancing is my parents. They are a great source of inspiration for me. They dance with me so that I can dance and take my hobby forward. I never dance in the same style but I like to mix up everything.

I know many types of dancing such as Jaz, tap, modern, hip hop, swing and western .Dancing will always remain a part of my life. It is a kind of sports that every generation enjoys.On every special occasion I feel like dancing. When I dance in the parties nobody can stop me from moving my feet fast in the rhythm of the music.

Netflix and Chill

I stand by my statement that Netflix is a perfectly acceptable hobby. Watching a lot of Netflix is no better or worse than considering yourself a "film buff", as long as you do it right.

You can certainly benefit from both the career enhancing and socially useful knowledge that these programs have to offer. But please, I beg of you: set some viewing criteria, seek out the classics, trust programs with actors and directors who generally pick good projects. My top 3 favourite series are.

No.	Series
1	Sherlock Holmes
2	Little things
3	Delhi crime
